

General Perspectives on the bar exam/diploma privilege/changes to the bar

- Oregon's Essential Eligibility Practice Requirements: link (RFA 1.25(a)-(b))
- BYU trends in the law conference: link (Recordings of all sessions are on the website. The Session at 2:15 was about Alternatives to the Bar Exam)
- IAALS report on building a better bar: link
- NCBE report on changes to the bar exam: link
- Article regarding Constitutional challenges to diploma privilege: link

Alternative Licensure Models

Wisconsin: Curriculum-based; school run

- Court rules: link (40.03)
- U of Wisconsin handbook form re DP: link
- Article: "The Wisconsin Diploma Privilege: Try It, You'll Like it": link
- 7th Circuit opinion denying challenge to Wisconsin diploma privilege: link (note: case was remanded for additional fact finding and ultimately settled)

New Hampshire: Skills based; school/BBX partnership

- Description of program: link
- Court rules: link
- Articles regarding the NH model:
 - IAALS assessment: link
 - Bar Examiner article: link

Emergency Models:

- Utah: link (limited in schools; graduation based; period of supervised practice)
- Washington D.C.: link (supervised practice based)
- Washington: link (all ABA accredited schools; no supervised practice period)
- Louisiana: link (all ABA accredited schools; no supervised practice but additional CLE and training program)

International Models:

- Canada
 - Prairie Provinces - CPLED (skills based course alternative to the bar exam; plus supervised practice): link
 - British Columbia: link (exam plus skills course plus supervised practice)